HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION TO HOST RAMADAN COMMUNITY DINNER

HIGH POINT, N.C. (June 4, 2018) – The High Point Human Relations Commission Interfaith Committee, in partnership with the Divan Center and the Community Mosque of High Point, will host the annual Community Ramadan Dinner on Wednesday, June 20 at 6:30 p.m. at the Deep River Recreation Center, located at 1529 Skeet Club Road in High Point. The keynote speaker will be Dr. Omar Ali, Dean of Lloyd International Honors College and Professor of Global and Comparative African Diaspora History at UNC-Greensboro.

The dinner, celebrating the end of Ramadan, is aimed to promote understanding, awareness and fellowship and to deepen the sense of community in North Carolina's International City. The event is free and open to the public, but seating is limited, so attendees are asked to RSVP at <https://ramadanhp.eventbrite.com>.

For more information please contact Human Relations Manager Fanta Dorley at 336.883.3124 or fanta.dorley@highpointnc.gov.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community's human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.
