UPCOMING PROGRAMS AT THE HIGH POINT PUBLIC LIBRARY

HIGH POINT, N.C. (August 13, 2018) – The High Point Public Library will host several events in the weeks ahead. Programs and activities include:

- For the Birds Series: Hummingbirds: Tuesday, August 14, 6:30 p.m.; Wednesday, August 15, 11 a.m.
Join Liz Schmid from Piedmont Wildlife Rehab as she shares information about these nocturnal feathered friends. Learn about the special adaptations that make owls successful nighttime hunters and meet a live owl.
- Small Business Owners: Do I Need to Keep This Record? Thursday, September 6, 6 p.m.
Small business owner Wilma Hairston will share firsthand knowledge of her experience of being audited and learning what records to keep for her business and for how long. Hear her practical advice and be better prepared as a current or future small business owner.
- Achieving Financial Security: A Community Forum: Saturday, September 8, 10 a.m.
First of a three-part series intended for parents of teenagers and young adults. Panelists from a variety of disciplines will discuss topics including managing student loan debt, auto insurance for dependents, bank and credit card fraud, moving into a first apartment and financially preparing to start a family. Presented by the Greensboro Chapter of the Society of Financial Services Professionals and the High Point Public Library. To register, call 336.883.8512 (registration encouraged but not required).

All events are free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Librarian Vicki Johnson at 336.883.8512 or vicki.johnson@highpointnc.gov
