HIGH POINT PUBLIC LIBRARY PRESENTS TRIVIA AND GIRLS NIGHT IN

HIGH POINT, N.C. (January 2, 2019) – The High Point Public Library will host two unique programs this February – the second installment of Trivia Night at Brown Truck Brewery on February 6 and a Girls Night In on February 13 at the Library.

Following the success of the first Brown Truck Trivia Night in December, the competition will be back on Wednesday, February 6, with categories such as romantic comedies, local wonders and pop culture. Each team will be given one free answer ticket with a purchase from the bar or the food truck that will be on site. Participants must be 21 to purchase from the bar. The event is set to begin at 6:30 p.m. Brown Truck Brewery is located at 1234 N. Main Street in High Point.

The Girls Night In event will be held on Wednesday, February 13 at 5:30 p.m. in the Library's Morgan Community Room and is geared towards girls ages 10 and up. In addition to fun games, there will be DIY face masks and bath bombs, free manicures, a hot chocolate bar and a showing of Mean Girls. Bring your mom, sister, aunt or other favorite relative or friend to celebrate the most fabulous ladies in your life. This event is held in collaboration with the children's department, teen and adult services of the Library. Because supplies are limited, participants are asked to preregister by contacting Lauren Mitchell at lauren.mitchell@highpointnc.gov or 336.883.3674.

Both events are free and open to the public. For more information, contact Lauren Mitchell at lauren.mitchell@highpointnc.gov.
