UPCOMING PROGRAMS AT THE HIGH POINT PUBLIC LIBRARY

HIGH POINT, N.C. (March 20, 2019) – The High Point Public Library will host several events in the weeks ahead. Programs and activities include:

- Business and Marketing Q&A: Thursday, March 28, 5:30 p.m.
A two-hour Q&A with a panel of entrepreneurs regarding start up, brand persona, design, goal setting and all things business. Presented in partnership with Norris Ventures, LLC.
- Better Investing: Why and How: Thursday, April 4, 5:30 p.m.
Workshop about the benefits of investing, how to find an investing group and resources to be successful. Both new and experienced investors can benefit from this workshop, led by Dr. Daniel Perlman, President of the North Carolina Chapter of BetterInvesting as part of Money Smart Week.

All events are free and open to the public. Preregistration is not required, but space is limited, however, and priority seating will be given to preregistered attendees. For more information, please contact Business Research Librarian John Raynor at 336.883.3216 or john.raynor@highpointnc.gov.
