

The High Point Police Department Has Been Recognized for the Following Awards Stemming from the Drug Market Initiative Strategy:

1999 - High Point Violent Crime Initiative won DEA Administrators Award

1999 - US Department of Justice Southeast Region Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force Award

2000 - Top-ten finalist for the Webber Seavey Award given by the International Association of Chiefs of Police

2000 - Finalist for the Herman Goldstein Award given by the Police Executive Research Forum P.E.R.F.

2001 - Won Governor's Award for Innovation in Community Policing (Large Agency)

2001 - Youth Violence Initiative won the Governor's Award for innovation in Juvenile Justice Programs

2006 – Finalist for the Herman Goldstein Award

2007 - National Forum on Criminal Justice & Public Safety for Outstanding Criminal Justice Program

2008 – National League of Cities Gold Award Winner