MULTI-FAITH NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER EVENT ON MAY 2

Sponsored by the City of High Point Human Relations Commission

HIGH POINT, N.C. (April 26, 2019) – The City of High Point Human Relations Commission will collaborate with local faith leaders for High Point’s third annual Multi-Faith National Day of Prayer at 7 a.m. on Thursday, May 2 at the High Point Public Library Plaza, located at 901 N. Main Street.

The National Day of Prayer is an annual day of observance on the first Thursday of May, inviting people of all faiths to pray for the nation. The local event will place emphasis on the need to pray for community, unity and peace. It will include sacred text reading and prayers from multiple faiths including Atheism, Baha’i, Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam and Judaism.

This event is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Human Relations Manager Fanta Dorley at 336.883.3124 or at fanta.dorley@highpointnc.gov.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community’s human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.
