SHOOTING – MULTIPLE VICTIMS

Just after 4:30 pm on Tuesday, December 24th, High Point Police responded to a reported shooting at 1230 Montlieu Av. Officers arrived to find multiple victims suffering from gunshot wounds. High Point Police Officers determined that six males were shot while in the parking lot outside the business. There were several other people in the parking lot during the shooting that were not struck by gunfire. Police are getting different descriptions of a suspect vehicle, but know that the vehicle passed the front of the store from Lexington Av toward Gordon St. All victims are in stable condition at local hospitals. Police have recovered multiple shell casings from Gordon St, adjacent from the parking lot.

Police are asking for any witnesses to contact Det. Matt Blackman at 336-887-7834. Anyone with information can contact Det. Blackman, or Crimestoppers at either 336-889-4000 or text the word CASHTIPS to 274637. Police will release more information when it becomes available.
