CITY COHOSTS INTERNATIONAL DAY OF GIVING THANKS COMMUNITY POTLUCK

High Point, N.C. (Nov. 5, 2019) – The City of High Point, in partnership with the YWCA and High Point University, will host the fourth annual International Day of Giving Thanks Community Potluck on Thursday, Nov. 14, 2019, at the High Point University Community Center located at 921 Eastchester Drive from 6 to 8 p.m.

This potluck style gathering highlights the diverse community that resides in High Point while giving thanks and appreciation. Attendees are asked to bring a dish to share with others. The purpose of the event is to share food from all over the world, build relationships and give individuals and families the chance to learn about different cultures and traditions.

“This event is a great way to connect residents and strengthen the relationship between city leaders and the public,” said Jelani Biggs, human relations manager for the City of High Point. “It reflects the City of High Point’s care and support for the international community.”

This free event is open to the public. For more information, please contact Erica Talley at 336.883.3124.

Established in 1920, YWCA High Point is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women and promoting peace, justice, freedom, and dignity for all. It is the vision of YWCA High Point to be the community’s leading nonprofit agency for empowering women, strengthening families and working toward racial justice.
