BRITT MOORE APPOINTED TO SERVE ON NATIONAL LEAGUE OF CITIES' COMMUNITY AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

High Point, N.C. (Jan. 3, 2020) – Britt Moore, City Council Member at Large, High Point, N.C., has been appointed to the National League of Cities (NLC) 2020 Community and Economic Development (CED) federal advocacy committee. This committee has the lead responsibility for developing NLC's federal policy positions on issues involving housing, community and economic development, land use, recreation and parks, historic preservation and international competitiveness. The appointment was announced by NLC President Joe Buscaino, councilmember, Los Angeles, Calif.

"I look forward to working with other leaders across our country to learn about our nation's economic opportunities and challenges while having High Point and surrounding communities' successes and concerns receiving the needed attention we deserve," said Moore

As a committee member, Moore will play a key role in shaping NLC's policy positions and advocate on behalf of America's cities and towns before Congress, with the administration and at home.

"NLC's federal advocacy committees ensure policymakers in Washington understand the most pressing issues facing local communities," said Joe Buscaino, councilmember of Los Angeles, Calif., and president of the National League of Cities (NLC). "I am proud to have Britt Moore join NLC's Community and Economic Development Committee on behalf of his residents. Together, with a team of local officials from across the country, we will strengthen the federal-local partnership and ultimately create stronger cities, towns and villages."

The leadership of this year's committee will consist of Chair Kevin Thompson, Councilmember, Mesa, Arizona, Vice Chair Kristopher Dahir, Councilman, Sparks, Nevada, and Vice Chair Emmett Jordan, Mayor, Greenbelt, Md.
