

Pro Quest Ebook Central

How to find ProQuest Ebook Central:

First visit the High Point Public Library website at:

<https://www.highpointnc.gov/749/Library>

- Click I want to
- Then Popular Destinations
- Scroll down and click NC Live and on the top right, click Log in to your library and then choose High Point Public Library
- Click next, then enter your library card number
- If you are a Guilford County Schools Student, enter GCS all caps no space and your Student ID# (for example GCS1234567). If you need a library card, call 336-883-3660 or 336-883-3661 for more information
- Then click Go, and click on Ebooks, then scroll down and then click on Ebook Central Academic and Public Library Complete

Set up an account:

- Click Sign in in the upper right hand corner
- Scroll down and click the Create account button
- Sign up with your email and create a password and click Create account
- Now you are ready to save your searches and borrow ebooks.

Ebooks on the go mobile app:

Ebook Central can be accessed from your tablet or phone to download ebooks for offline reading. Download the app for more convenient usage.

Types of resources:

Content: Scholarly titles supporting student and faculty research, and general nonfiction on topics such as school & studying, career development, arts & leisure, and practical life skills, juvenile fiction and nonfiction.

Audience: Students, children and adults.

Special Features: Teacher and parent resources,

How to find the ebooks and resources:

Browse by category, basic search, advanced search

If you have questions, call 336-883-3661 or email
holly.jones@highpointnc.gov

