HIGH POINT PUBLIC LIBRARY HOSTS BLACK HISTORY MONTH EXPO

High Point, N.C. (Feb. 19, 2020) – The High Point Public Library will hold the Black History Month Expo on Saturday, Feb. 22, 2020, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at 901 N Main St., High Point, N.C. in the first-floor lobby.

The event will consist of vendors offering a variety of products and services by local businesses. Guests will enjoy a variety of black history book displays, various posters, exhibits and a number of circulating materials about the black experience. There will be charcoal drawings by a local artist, and Sisters Connected Book Discussion of Born a Crime by Trevor Noah will take place at 1 p.m. in the Book Lovers Room on the third floor.

This program is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Maxine Days at 336.883.3646 or maxine.days@highpointnc.gov.
