

High Point Farmers Market 2021 Vendor Rules and Application

About the High Point Farmers Market

The High Point Farmers Market operates under the direction of the High Point Public Library, a department of the City of High Point. The mission of the High Point Farmers Market is to promote a healthy lifestyle and a sense of community in a family-friendly gathering place.

As such, the priorities of the Market are providing:

- Access to fresh, locally grown produce;
- Information by professionals about health, nutrition and physical wellbeing;
- A welcoming community gathering place;
- Support for local farmers, handcrafters and artisans;
- A venue for local community groups and non-profits to share information about their organizations.

The High Point Farmers Market will be held in the parking lot of the High Point Public Library located at 901 North Main Street every Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., from April 17 through October 30. (Only food, produce, and plant vendors from April 17-May 8 with craft vendors beginning May 15.) Admission is free for shoppers; however, vendors must pay a minimal fee to cover the costs of event production.

We look forward to a great High Point Farmers Market season and hope you will join us as a weekly vendor.

COVID-19 Rules and Regulations

- Vendors must wear a mask, unless they have disclosed a medical condition to the Farmers Market manager.
- The Farmers Market will observe social distancing and provide masks for vendors and customers who may need one.
- The Farmers Market manager may reduce the number of vendors if City officials determine local COVID conditions warrant such action. If so, food vendors will have precedence for space.

General Rules

- It is the sole responsibility of each vendor to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, ordinances, requirements, rules, and standards. This includes, but is not limited to, laws, regulations, ordinances, requirements, rules and standards related to sales tax, alcohol sales, agriculture sales, environmental matters, trademark law, and food safety and health matters.
- There are 18 permanent stalls constructed, as well as space for additional vendor booths. Each vendor will be designated a 10x10 foot space. More space can be negotiated on an as needed basis. Permanent stalls will be equipped with electricity and water. If you require the use of these, you must notify the Farmers Market Manager.
- If all permanent stalls are taken, vendors must provide their own tents/canopies. Tents/canopies must be weighted for safety.
- All vendors are responsible for providing their own tables and seating.
- Vendors must ensure that their signs/displays do not obstruct customers' views or access to other vendors.
- Vendors may arrive as early as 7:00 a.m. Vendor booths must be set up and in place no later than 8:15 a.m. For any vendors arriving after 8:15 a.m., vehicles will not be permitted inside the Farmers Market area. Vehicles may not enter the Market area before 1:00 p.m. to dismantle without prior approval from the Market Manager.

General Rules Continued

- Unless otherwise noted, vendors must park at the HPB Insurance Company or in the Dummit Fradin Law Offices parking lot on N Elm Street.
- Any item for sale at must be of reputable and high quality.
- Preference for inclusion in the Market will be given to vendors who do not already have an established storefront operation.
- The City of High Point accepts no responsibility for the goods sold at the High Point Farmers Market.
- If you violate any of the terms of this application, you will be asked to remove your booth and not to return. Further, your vendor fee will not be refunded.
- Smoking by vendors will be in designated areas only.

Farmer and Artisan Food Vendors

- Produce vendors may sell regional produce from farms located up to 250 miles from the High Point Farmers Market, until the date that such produce comes into season locally (Guilford, Randolph, Davidson, and Forsyth Counties).
- Prices and point of origin for all produce must be clearly posted, and vendors who sell products from multiple farm locations must have signs or labels that clearly indicate the farm location from which the products originate. Labels are available from the Market Manager.
- Vendors must provide their own scales and weighing equipment, which must be approved as legal for trade.
- All ingredients of prepared foods must be properly labeled and dated.
- Meat, cheese, and fish must meet all applicable health inspection and certification requirements. Prepared foods must be prepared in a certified kitchen.
- Vendors selling any acidified foods such as pickles must have completed appropriate courses and prepared such foods at approved sites.
- Vendors offering samples of any food products are solely responsible for using safe handling practices.

Arts, Crafts, and other Vendors

- All arts and crafts must be (1) handmade by the vendor or (2) a value-added product. A value-added product is defined as one that has undergone a significant change in the physical state or form of the product. (An example of a value-added product would be taking a bottle, and painting it or embellishing it with decorations to create a vase.)
- Professionally mass-produced items such as knick-knacks, plastic jewelry, and other low quality merchandise may not be sold.
- Art work may not display nudity, vulgarity, or any other material deemed offensive or obscene by the City
- Arts and crafts vendors must meet with the Market's review committee before application can be accepted.
- Non-profit and civic groups may request a space to share information about their organizations one time during the Market season.

Vendor Application and Registration

- All vendors must complete, sign, and submit this application along with payment at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the market event. If the application is complete, the Farmers Market Review Committee will review the application and, in its sole discretion, approve or decline entry into the market event at least three (3) calendar days before the market event.
- If a vendor is unable to attend a market event they have registered for, the vendor shall notify the Farmers Market Manager of cancellation by 5 p.m. the Friday before the market event. Fees will not be refunded for vendor cancellation, but your fee may be applied to a future market

Vendor Fee Structure

The vendor fee structure is listed in the table below. You may pay for one week at a time, or for multiple weeks in advance. If you are paying for more than one week at a time, the weeks must be sequential. If you have paid for vendor space for a particular Saturday and the High Point Farmers Market cancels that Saturday due to weather or any other reason, you will receive a full refund of your vendor fee for that week, or your vendor fee may be applied to the following Saturday, whichever option you prefer.

Vendor Fees

Fee for One Week	$15
Fee for Four Weeks	$50
Fee for the Full Season (Please note, the full season may be paid in four installments of $50 each. There will be no refunds for rain cancellations for those paying for a full season)	$200

Vendor Payment

Please do not submit payments until the Farmers Market Manager has approved your application.

All checks should be made out to "The City of High Point" and mailed to P.O. Box 2530, High Point, NC 27261 or dropped off at the customer service desk at the High Point Public Library during library operating hours.
