THE THIRD ANNUAL GUILFORD CREEK WEEK BEGINS JUNE 5

HIGH POINT, N.C. (June 3, 2021) – Guilford Creek Week, a joint venture between the City of Greensboro, Guilford County, the City of High Point, Haw River Assembly and the Piedmont Triad Regional Council, returns June 5 to June 12 to celebrate the importance, impact and influence of the creeks and waterways of Guilford County and its municipalities. This campaign is aimed to raise awareness about the vital role of local waters and how the health of that water can have a direct impact on communities.

Through the support of local businesses and organizations, Guilford Creek Week is able to provide many engaging, hands-on, recreational events for residents to participate in throughout the week and throughout Guilford County.

A full list of all the events throughout the county can be found at www.guilfordcreekweek.org, as well as www.facebook.com/guilfordcreekweek.

For more information, please contact guilfordcreekweek@gmail.com.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community's human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.
