LIBRARY HOSTS PULLMAN POET SOCIETY

HIGH POINT, N.C. (July 20, 2021) – The High Point Public Library will host “Poetry Delight,” an event on Saturday, Sept. 18, 2021, at 1 p.m. at the High Point Public Library Arts and Entertainment Plaza at 901 N. Main St.

Please join us for afternoon of Poetry with Pullman Poet Society; founded by Members of the High Point Arts Council October 2016. The PPS was born out of a desire to provide opportunities and create a stronger community for local writers. Open to all ages and experience levels, the PPS meets twice a month and holds many poetry-related events throughout the year.

In 2017, the PPS published the first volume of its anthology. The PPS anthology serves as a glimpse into the creative process and imaginations of the poets who call High Point, North Carolina home. Over the course of the year, PPS writers learn new poetry concepts, listen to published poets, and apply their knowledge by critiquing the work of their peers.

This out -doors event is free and open to the public.
