LIBRARY TO HOST HALLOWEEN EVENTS

HIGH POINT, N.C. (Oct. 11, 2021 ) – The High Point Public Library will host a costume swap, trunk-or-treat and High Point University’s annual HPUiverse Day to celebrate Halloween.

Halloween costume swap for children on Saturday, Oct. 16, from 3 – 5 p.m. in the Morgan Community Room of the library at 901 N. Main St. Families can drop off last year’s costume at the Children’s Reference desk during regular business hours and pick up a ticket for the swap. Donations are accepted. Then, on Saturday, Oct. 16, they can come and pick out a costume for this year.

On Friday, Oct. 29, from 6 - 7:30 p.m., kids can come and trunk-or-treat in the library parking lot. Following the trunk or treat activities, there will be a showing of the movie “Goosebumps” in the library parking lot. Participants are encouraged to bring blankets and chairs to enjoy the film under the stars.

Finally, on Saturday, Oct. 30, from 4 – 7 p.m., the library will host High Point University’s annual HPUiverse Day. This year the festival’s theme is spooky science. The event will feature space science, including rocket launches, moon crater demonstrations, a gravity gym and much more. The event is free, but a donation of gently used or new children’s books is requested. Costumes are encouraged. Reservations can be made through the library by calling 336.883.3666 or by registering online at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/508084AAFA72EA3FF2-spooky>.
