

CITY OF HIGH POINT AMERICAN RESCUE PLAN SUMMARY

The City of High Point’s total allocation of American Rescue Plan Act of 2021: Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds (CSLFRF) is $22,699,511.

Based on the Interim Final Rule, it was determined that the amount of revenue loss dollars available to High Point was $12,807,922. Following new guidance for revenue loss in the Final Rule, the amount of revenue loss dollars now exceeds the amount allocated to the City of High Point, effectively making the full $22,699,511 available as revenue loss.

On November 16, 2021, and November 18, 2021, the City held community engagement sessions on potential uses of ARP funds. Broad categories of funding were identified from these sessions.
