

HIGH POINT POLICE DEPARTMENT OFFICER KILLED SUMMARY

Shelia Dianne Twyman
Died 12-23-2001

In the early morning hours of December 20, 2001, Master Police Officer III Shelia Twyman of the High Point Police Department was on routine patrol when a tractor-trailer truck failed to stop at a red traffic light and struck her patrol car. She was taken to High Point Regional Health Systems and then transferred to Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center where she died from her injuries on December 23, 2001.

Allen Jerome Morris
Killed 9-16-1928

Captain Morris made an arrest for drunkenness. The arrestee, in an attempt to escape, struck Morris in the stomach with his knee. The blow resulted in the death several days later. Captain Morris is the highest-ranking officer ever to be killed in the line of duty.

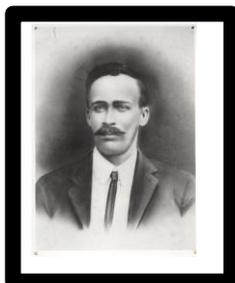

Carey J. Reaves
Killed 6-10-1925

Fred G. Claywell
Killed 6-10-1925

Officers Claywell and Reaves were working together as they investigated reports of an illegal liquor and gambling house. A resident who was subsequently charged in the deaths shot them. This is the only instance of a multiple officer shooting.

William Witcher
Killed 9-15-1913

Officer Witcher was the first from the High Point Police Department to lose his life in service. On a disturbance call, officers attempted to arrest a man who was fighting in public. A shot was fired, mortally wounding Officer Witcher.
