INCIDENT TYPE

Shots Fired, 2299 Shadow Valley Road

Shortly after 11:00 a.m. this morning, officers with the High Point Police Vice/Narcotics Unit were attempting to arrest two individuals in a vehicle for felony heroin charges. The suspects had entered a parking lot in the 2200 block of Shadow Valley Road. The driver of the vehicle attempted to flee and struck an unoccupied civilian vehicle in the parking lot. The suspect vehicle, a Dodge Charger, continued and assaulted one of the officers by hitting him with the vehicle in the leg. That officer then fired several rounds that struck the suspects' car. The suspect vehicle then rammed an occupied undercover police vehicle and was disabled. Both suspects were then taken into custody without further incident. No one was hit by the gunshots and no other property was damaged. The officer struck by the car was treated and released at High Point Regional Hospital. No one else required any medical attention.
