HOMICIDE, 602 SOUTH RD.

On August 22, 2016, High Point Police responded to 602 South Rd. for a call of an assault in progress. Responding officers found Christopher Michael Kimbal, 22, suffering from stab wounds. Kimbal had been in an altercation with a male acquaintance and had been stabbed by the acquaintance. Kimbal later died as a result of the stabbing.

On September 1, 2016, High Point Police Detectives and the Guilford County District Attorney's Office agreed that no charges will be filed in this case at this time. Detectives and Prosecutors agree that witness statements and physical evidence indicate that the man killed Kimbal in self-defense.
