INTERNET PURCHASE EXCHANGE

With the increased popularity of online trading and sales applications, like Letgo, Craig's List, Offerup, and Facebook, the High Point Police Department has established an Internet Purchase Exchange Location. This is intended to be a safe location for individuals to conduct their online trades and purchases. The Internet Purchase Exchange Location is located in the corner of the parking lot of the Police Department and is under video surveillance. The High Point Police Department is encouraging individuals to use this location to make their online trades and purchases safer.

Crimestoppers of High Point pays cash rewards for information that leads to arrests, seizures or solving serious crimes. Callers with successful tips remain anonymous and receive rewards up to $2,000.
