Arrest of Charles Hazelwood for Organized Retail Theft

On April 18, 2017 Charles Robert Hazelwood was arrested for Receiving Stolen Property, Obtaining Property by False Pretense and Organized Retail Theft. This arrest was the result of nearly three months of work by the High Point Police Department's Property Crimes Unit working in concert with multiple law enforcement agencies in the Triad. A search warrant executed today at Mr. Hazelwood's address has resulted in thousands of dollars of recovered stolen property. The property was stolen from numerous businesses in the area. The investigation is ongoing and more arrests are expected. Lt Chris Weisner will be available at the High Point Police Department for any further media inquiries Wednesday April 19, 2017 at 1:00pm.
