HIGH POINT FARMERS MARKET ANNOUNCES AUGUST SCHEDULE

HIGH POINT, N.C. (August 2, 2017) – In addition to local produce, baked goods and handicrafts, the High Point Farmers Market will offer a variety of events throughout the market season. Below are activities planned for the month of August:

- August 5: High Point University Staff and Faculty Day. Special gift basket raffle for HPU employees along with a gift basket raffle for the general public as well.
- August 12: Recycling Day. City of High Point staff will have a booth with recycling information and free giveaways.
- August 19: Weaving Demonstration. Kim Mozingo and Terry Teague will use materials from the High Point Museum to demonstrate weaving from 9:00 a.m. until noon.
- August 26: Back to School Day. Free face painting from 10:30 – 11:30 a.m. and a drawing for a basket of school supplies and market produce.

Also, staff and students from High Point University's School of Health Sciences will be present every Saturday to do free health screenings.

The Farmers Market is held every Saturday until October 26 from 8:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. While the High Point Public Library parking lot is under construction, the Market will take place across North Elm Street in the BNC parking lot. For more information about the Farmers Market, contact Market Manager Lee Gann at 336.689.4463 or theleegann@gmail.com.
