LIBRARY HOSTS MASTER GARDENER PROGRAM ON FALL GARDENING

HIGH POINT, N.C. (September 8, 2017) – On Wednesday, September 20, from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. in the Morgan Community Room, the High Point Public Library will host a session on fall maintenance for gardens to help prepare them for the winter months. This session will focus on planting, transplanting and starting fall-flowering containers, as well as winterizing tools to prepare for future seasons.

This event is free and open to the public, and presented by the N.C. Extension Services Master Gardener Volunteers. The High Point Public Library is located at 901 N Main Street. For more information, contact Librarian Mark Taylor at 336.883.3646 or mark.taylor@highpointnc.gov.

The High Point Public Library is committed to nurturing the joy of reading, sharing the power of knowledge, strengthening the sense of community and enhancing cultural and economic vitality. The library is a department of the City of High Point.
