LIBRARY TO HOST PINK 4 LUNCH SUSAN G. KOMEN EVENT

HIGH POINT, N.C. (September 20, 2017) – On Wednesday, October 11, the High Point Public Library will host “Pink 4 Lunch: Eat, Meet and Educate” from noon – 1:00 p.m. in the Morgan Community Room. This free event is sponsored by Susan G. Komen Northwest NC.

“Pink 4 Lunch” is designed to educate people about the importance of early detection of breast cancer and address high breast cancer mortality rates among women in our community. Susan G. Komen was established in 1982 and is the world’s largest breast cancer organization.

This event is free and open to the public, but registration is required. Lunch will be provided for registered guests. For more information or to register, contact Librarian Maxine Days at 336.883.3641 or maxine.days@highpointnc.gov.

The High Point Public Library is committed to nurturing the joy of reading, sharing the power of knowledge, strengthening the sense of community and enhancing cultural and economic vitality. The library is a department of the City of High Point.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community’s human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.
