HIGH POINT PUBLIC LIBRARY HOSTS DOMESTIC VIOLENCE WORKSHOP

HIGH POINT, N.C. (October 2, 2017) – The High Point Public Library and Family Service of the Piedmont will host a domestic violence workshop on Tuesday, October 10 at 2:00 p.m. in the Morgan Community Room as part of Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

Topics of discussion will include warning signs, struggling to leave an abusive relationship and how to seek help. A question and answer session will follow the presentation, and light refreshments will be served.

Domestic violence can happen to anyone, and yet problems are often overlooked, excused or denied. Family Service of the Piedmont operates a 24-hour crisis line that can be reached by calling 336.889.7273. If you are in immediate danger, please call 911.

This event is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Maxine Days at 336.883.3646 or maxine.days@highpointnc.gov.

The High Point Public Library is committed to nurturing the joy of reading, sharing the power of knowledge, strengthening the sense of community and enhancing cultural and economic vitality. The library is a department of the City of High Point.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community's human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.
