HIGH POINT, N.C. (October 24, 2017) – Children are invited to come to the High Point Farmers Market this Saturday, October 28 between 9:00 a.m. and noon to paint a free mini-pumpkin to take home just in time for Halloween.

The Farmers Market is located in the High Point Public Library parking lot nearest Krispy Kreme and is open from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. It offers fresh seasonal produce, baked goods and free health screenings by High Point University Health Sciences staff.

October 28 will mark the final market for this year. Market Manager Lee Gann plans to kick off the 2018 Farmers Market in late April, using the permanent market stalls currently under construction as part of the renovation of the Library parking lot.
