

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jonathan Clapp 336.420.0208

FIRE DEPARTMENT HOSTS EXPLORING DAY NOVEMBER 4

HIGH POINT, N.C. (November 2, 2017) – The High Point Fire Department will host an Exploring Day this Saturday, November 4 from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. at the Fire Training Center located at 1025 W. Ward Avenue. This event will involve Service Explorers from the Old North State Council Boy Scouts of America. Fire, Law Enforcement, Aviation and Medical Explorers will be in attendance, and each will host a display or simulated event to show hands-on demonstrations introducing youth to possible career paths.

Exploring is Learning for Life's career education program for young men and women between the ages of 14 and 20. Participants are exposed to many career experiences, leadership opportunities and community services activities. The High Point Fire Explorers Post 434 meets the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

For more information, please contact Jonathan Clapp at 336.420.0208 or jonathan.clapp@scouting.org.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community's human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.

###