

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Maxine Days 336.883.3646

LIBRARY HOSTS BLACK EXPO ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17

HIGH POINT, N.C. (January 30, 2018) – The High Point Public Library will host a Black Expo event on Saturday, February 17 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. with events throughout the Library. Vendors offering a variety of products and services such as books, African clothing, educational material and cooking ideas will be located in the first floor lobby.

At 11:00 a.m. in the Book Lovers Room, children are invited to participate in Culinary Kids, a hands-on cooking program that teaches school-aged children about nutrition. At noon, Sisters Connected will discuss Underground Airlines by Ben H. Winters, and at 1:00 p.m. local storyteller April Turner will present African dancing and stories in the first floor Story Room.

This event is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Research Associate Maxine Days at 336.883.3646 or maxine.days@highpointnc.gov.

The High Point Public Library is a department of the City of High Point and is located at 901 North Main Street. High Point Public Library is committed to nurturing the joy of reading, sharing the power of knowledge, strengthening the sense of community and enhancing economic and cultural vitality.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community's human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.

###