PUBLIC AWARENESS DAY AT THE HIGH POINT PUBLIC LIBRARY MAY 22

HIGH POINT, N.C. (May 17, 2018) – The City of High Point will host a Public Services Awareness Day on Tuesday, May 22 from 9:00 a.m. to noon at the High Point Public Library in recognition of National Public Works Week.

This event will be an opportunity for residents to learn more about the vital public works programs, day-to-day operations and see some of the equipment that is used to help maintain the operation of sanitary and storm sewers, solid waste collection and environmental services, recycling, landfill and yardwaste; street maintenance, public buildings and grounds and wastewater and water treatments.

City staff will be on hand to demonstrate equipment use and discuss facility operations. For more information please contact Stormwater Specialist Kelsie Burgess at 336.883.3819 or kelsie.burgess@highpointnc.gov.

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community's human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.
