

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Sofia Crisp 336.553.0946, Ext. 3

CITY PARTNERSHIP TO SPONSOR COMMUNITY HOME REPAIR EVENT
Rescheduled from May 19 to June 2 Due to Inclement Weather

HIGH POINT, N.C. (May 18, 2018) – Due to inclement weather, the Operation Inasmuch (OIAM) Day of Service sponsored by the City of High Point Community Development & Housing Department, Community Housing Solutions and Housing Consultants Group that was previously scheduled for May 19 has been rescheduled to Saturday, June 2 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the Washington Street neighborhood.

The program is a hands-on, volunteer-driven Day of Service that focuses on improving the quality of life in communities in need by way of home repairs.

According to Michael McNair, Director of the High Point Community Development & Housing Department, “This is an example of the power of public and private partnership that is focused on the community we live in.”

“Operation Inasmuch is an outpouring of love and service. It brings volunteers from different communities to one community. At the end of the day the volunteers have been blessed as much as the homeowner,” said Sofia S. Crisp, Executive Director, Housing Consultants Group.

For additional information about this event, please contact Sofia S. Crisp at Sofia.crisp@housingconsultantsgroup.org or by calling (336) 553-0946, Ext. 3

The City of High Point aims to serve as the catalyst for bringing together the community’s human, economic and civic resources for the purpose of creating the single most livable, safe and prosperous community in America. For more information on the City, visit www.highpointnc.gov.

###